

Divi will mature to approx 16.3 and is an exceptional dressage and eventing prospect. She is rewarding to work with and is not a mare that will disappoint. Divi has been classically trained to date, is solid WTC on the lunge and under saddle, and has started work on lateral movements. She goes quietly through the woods, along trails, and is content on our country roads. Divi is also an easy keeper and exceptionally neat in her stall, making her an additional favorite for those that know her!
